DESCRIPTION

Soft line street furniture is very popular among architects. Products of this line can be found in shopping malls, office buildings, patios of office buildings, parks, squares and railway stations. The furniture is durable and stable because it is made of stainless steel or carbon steel, powder coated, as well as national wood or optionally - exotic wood. The characteristic look fits both classic and modern architectural designs. Soft free-standing chair was designed as an external piece of furniture to be placed in a place where the bench is too big, or in a park. An additional element can be a Soft park table.
