DESCRIPTION

Aries is a modern bin without an ashtray.

This model is produced in two variants: - entirely in stainless steel - painted carbon steel construction with a stainless steel drum

The cylinder-shaped design, set on a post, attracts attention with its simplicity of execution and the highest quality of materials used. In particular the use of satin stainless steel gives the entire Aries construction an elegant and modern character. Stainless steel is also a guarantee of resistance to mechanical damage and the effects of constant external exposure. The capacity of the Aries bin is 37 litres, with a height of 80 cm. The litter bin is ideal for use in front of modern buildings.
