DESCRIPTION

You are looking for new solutions? Steel city bench Quantic will be the perfect choice! It is a product with modern, simple design and many different possibilities of arrangement. Whether you arrange an urban space or a park - steel bench Quantic ideally suits each place. It's worth to take a close look to details and interesting combinations of materials. For the production of urban benches we used heavy-duty steel, protected from harmful external factors and wood. The bench can be painted in any color from our RAL color palette. It is attached to the ground with dowels, but it can also remain a freestanding model.
