DESCRIPTION

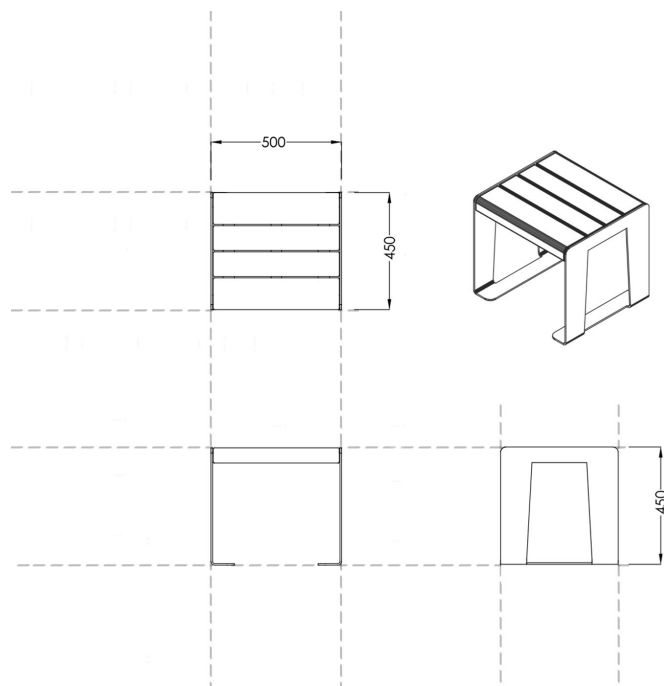

Reliq is a city stool boasting a contemporary design that highlights minimalism—a straightforward structure with a subtle flare. This piece serves both as urban furniture and a revitalizing element in city squares, mall interiors, lofts, or repurposed industrial spaces.

Individual stools can seamlessly be connected to create a bench whenever you need a more expansive seating area to work, relax, or simply hang out with someone else. The seating solution offers a universal installation system, allowing for permanent ground attachment. Reliq belongs to an extensive collection of urban furnishings.

Constructed from black powder-coated steel or stainless steel, paired with wood in any variety and shade from the available selection.

Experiment with colors, mix and match, and design your ideal chill-out zone!
