DESCRIPTION

The Tulip flower pot (SKU number: 06.021.2.L) from ZANO is a modern piece of small architecture that perfectly fits the needs of contemporary urban spaces and private gardens. This elegant flowerpot with structural simplicity and thoughtful design has a square base with a width of 100 cm and a height of 55 cm, which makes it extremely stable and functional. The powder-coated flowerpot is made from a choice of two types of steel: carbon steel S235JR or stainless steel AISI 304, which provide great durability and weather resistance. Users have the option to customize the Tulip pot to their specific needs thanks to two mounting options: freestanding or screw-on. Such solutions allow for easy installation and stability in a variety of locations, which is crucial for urban and garden furniture. The 56-kg pot guarantees the sturdiness of the structure, preventing it from tipping over even in harsh weather conditions. ZANO used a minimalist approach to form in this model, which emphasizes its universal character, blending perfectly with both modern and more traditional spaces. The Tulip flower pot is part of the Modern product line, which means its high aesthetics and advanced technological solutions. This line is known for innovating in the field of urban furniture and pots, combining functionality...
