DESCRIPTION

The Stilo Lounger, designed for individual use, is perfect for outfitting parks, public squares, and gardens. It stands out for its ergonomic design and ease of use. This lounger is a part of the Stilo collection, which features benches, tables, trash cans, planters, and a self-service bike repair station.

Its curved and welded structure incorporates wooden slats. The metal components have thicknesses of 4 and 8 mm. Customers can choose between the following steel structure options: - galvanized carbon steel S235JR, powder-coated according to the RAL color chart - or entirely in polished stainless steel 1.4301 The lounger contains 37 slats measuring 45x53x600mm and 2 slats of 145x53x600mm. We offer the following wood choices to our customers: - European conifer wood that has been impregnated and twice varnished - or exotic wood that is impregnated and oiled twice
